O Eternal God, our heavenly Father, whose Name is the God of Hosts, who art the only giver of all Victory; We yield thee our hearty Praise and Thanksgiving for the late signal Deliverance, and glorious Success thou hast vouchsafed to our Sovereign Lord the King, and his Allies. We adore and bless thy Divine Goodness, that thou didst not give them over as a Prey to Cruel and Blood-thirsty Men; but hast taught their Hands to War, and their Fingers to Fight, and hast shewed them a marvellous great kindness in a strong City. We humbly pray that these, and all other thy Benefits, may raise in us, and in the whole Church of God, a spirit of holy Joy, and Christian Charity, a spirit of fervent Zeal for thy Name and Glory, and a stedfast Faith and Perseverance in thy Pure and Undefiled Religion, through Jesus Christ our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the King, to be constantly Used while His Majesty is Abroad in the Wars.

ALmighty and most gracious God, who hast been our Deliverer in the day of our distress, and hast Raised up thy servant King William to be the happy Instrument of our Deliverance: And hast also wonderfully Preserved him in those great Dangers to which he hath been so often exposed both by Sea and Land: We humbly beseech thee still to continue him under the merciful care and protection of thy good Providence; to preserve him from all secret and treacherous Practices and Attempts; to stand by him, and to cover his Head in the day of Danger; to bless him with good Success; and to bring him back in safety to our comfort: And likewise to give us grace to live worthy of these Mercies, in all thankful obedience to thee, and in dutiful subjection to his Majesty, whom thou hast set over us, and whom we beseech thee long to preserve and continue to us for thy Mercies sake, in Jesus Christ our blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ The Collect for Peace.

O God who art the Author of peace and lover of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose service is perfect freedom; defend us thy humble servants, in all assaults of our enemies, that we surely trusting in thy defence, may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Amen.

¶ In the end of the Litany, after the Collect [We humbly beseech thee, O Father, &c.] shall be said these following Prayers.

O Lord God of our salvation, without whose Aid and Influence all our Strength is weakness, our Courage rashness, and our Counsel folly; We thy unworthy servants do magnifie thy great and glorious Name for this and many other most gracious Preservations thou hast vouchsafed his Majesties Royal Person, and for that eminent, and most remarkable Victory, wherewith thou hast lately so wonderfully blest the Arms of our Sovereign Lord and his Allies. O continue forth thy loving kindness towards him: Let thy tender mercies prevent and follow him all the days of his Life: Let his Reign be Prosperous, and his Arms Victorious, and let the blessings of Safety and happy Success attend all those that Fight his Battels. Preserve him from the gathering together of the froward, and from the Insurrection of the evil doers. Let no Weapon that is formed against him prosper, but make him always to return with honour and Victory. O let all the Blessings of Heaven and Earth be powred out upon the sacred Head of thine Anointed, Anointed, and from thence flow down even to the skirts of the meanest of his People, in Peace, and Plenty, and Prosperity: That so both Prince and People may with one mind, and with one mouth glorifie thee, O God most gracious, for this thy unspeakable goodness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALmighty God, who art a strong Towre of Defence unto thy Servants against the face of their Enemies; We yield thee praise and Thanksgiving for our Deliverance from those great and apparent Dangers wherewith we were compassed. We acknowledge it thy goodness, that we were not delivered over as a Prey unto them; beseeching thee still to continue such thy mercies towards us, that all the World may know that thou our Saviour and mighty Deliverer, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ The General Thanksgiving.

ALmighty God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving kindness to us and to all men.

* This to be said when any that have been prayed for, desire to return praise.

[* particularly to those who desire now to offer up their praises and thanksgivings for thy late mercies vouchsafed unto them.] We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life, but above all for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech thee give us that due sence of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we may shew forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom with thee and the holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

may

¶ A Prayer of S. Chrysostom.

ALmighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord, to make our common supplications unto thee, and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. 13. 14.

THe grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the holy Ghost be with us all evermore. Amen.

¶ In the Communion-Service, between the Commandments and the Epistle, shall this Collect be used, instead of the Collect for the King, and of the Collect for the day.

O Eternal God, our heavenly Father, whose Name is the God of Hosts, who art the only giver of all Victory; We yield thee our hearty Praise and Thanksgiving for the late Signal Deliverance, and glorious Success thou hast vouchsafed to our Sovereign Lord the King and his Allies. We adore and bleſs thy Divine Goodneſs, that thou didſt not give them over as a prey to cruel and bloud-thirſty men; but haſt taught their hands to War, and their Fingers to Fight, and haſt ſhewed them a marvellous great kindneſs in a ſtrong City. We humbly pray that theſe, and all other thy Benefits, may raiſe in us, and in the whole Church of God, a Spirit of holy Joy, and Chriſtian Charity, a Spirit of fervent zeal for thy Name and Glory, and a ſtedfaſt Faith and Perſeverance in thy pure and undefiled Religion, through Jeſus Chriſt our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall follow the Epiſtle. Phil. 4. 4 to v. 10.

REjoyce in the Lord alway; and again I ſay rejoyce. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. Be careful for nothing: but in every thing by prayer and ſupplication with thankſgiving, let your requeſts be made known unto God. And the peace of God which paſſeth all underſtanding, ſhall keep your hearts and minds through Chriſt Jeſus. Finally, brethren, whatſoever things are true, whatſoever things are honeſt, whatſoever things are juſt, whatſoever things are pure, whatſoever things are lovely, whatſoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, and if there be any praiſe, think on theſe things. Thoſe things which ye have both learned and received, and heard and ſeen in me, do: and the God of peace ſhall be with you.

¶ The Goſpel. S. Mark 8. 34. to the end.

AND when he had called the people unto him, with his diſciples alſo, he ſaid unto them, whoſoever will come after me, let him deny himſelf, and take up his croſs, and follow me. For whoſoever will will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the Gospels, the same shall save it. For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me, and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father, with the holy Angels.

¶ Then the Nicene Creed. After that the Sermon,

¶ After the Prayer [For the whole State of Christs Church, &c.] this Collect shall be used.

O Almighty God, the Sovereign Commander of all things, in whose hand is power and might, whose help is alike in all places, able to bless and make successful the means of our eminent Success, the whole glory whereof we do ascribe to thy most wise and gracious Providence. Grant, O Lord, that we may improve this great Blessing to the advancement of thy Honour, the honour of our Sovereign, and as much as in us lieth, to the good of all mankind. Suffer us never to grow remiss in this kind, lest we provoke thee to withdraw from us all such signal tokens of thy favour, as may engage us to a true thankfulness, that we may appear in our lives, an humble, holy, and obedient people before thee all our days. Thus shall we be thy people, and thou our God. And to whom with thee and the holy Spirit, as for all the mercies so in particular for this present Occasion we pay all praise and adoration, be all glory and honour, world without end. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for all Mankind, especially for the Reformed Churches.

MOst gracious and merciful God, who art the Saviour of all men, especially of those that believe, and hast commanded us to make prayers and intercessions for all men, desiring that all may be saved, and come to the knowledge of the Truth; We humbly beseech thee to extend thy mercy and compassion to all Mankind; more particularly to the Reformed Churches, and especially to those who are still under Persecution for Truth and Righteousness sake. Relieve them according to their several necessities; be a shelter and defence to them from the fury of the Oppressour. Let the sighing of the Prisoners come before thee; and according to the greatness of thy power preserve them that are appointed to die; that not one perish through the want of necessary food, or the holding of the means from them. Have mercy upon them that are banished for the Testimony of thy Truth. Gather the dispersed together, and stop the outcries of the People, and in the midst of these your own Land. And whatsoever they have lost for the sake of Jesus, return it to them abundantly in this present World, in the manifold riches of grace here, and in Life everlasting hereafter. Deliver them, O God, out of all their troubles. And be pleased to enlighten all those that sit in Darkness and Error, and bring them to the knowledge of the Truth, that they may all be converted to the acknowledging the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom he hath sent, and be turned unto the Lord. And we may all become one Flock under the great Shepherd and Bishop of our Souls, Jesus Christ, our Blessed Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

ALmighty God, who haſt promiſed to hear the Petitions of them that aſk in thy Sons Name; We beſeech thee mercifully to incline thine ears to us, that have made now our Prayers and Supplications unto thee, and grant that thoſe things which we have faithfully aſked according to thy Will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our neceſſity, and to the ſetting forth of thy glory, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Prieſt (or Biſhop, if he be preſent) ſhall let them depart with this Bleſſing.

THe Peace of God which paſſeth all underſtanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jeſus Chriſt our Lord: and the bleſſing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the holy Ghoſt, be amongſt you, and remain with you always. Amen.

FINIS.
